

Battle of Stoneman's Raid (Civil War Battle Scenario)

- 1:15 A small troop of Union Cavalry approach the Confederate picket line with caution and shots are exchanged.
- 1:20 Union cavalry will withdraw to Union Main Force and Union Infantry skirmishers and Cavalry will advance on the Confederate Forces once more and Exchange Fire
- 1:25 Confederate Artillery will begin fire and additional Confederate Forces will become engaged.
- 1:30 The full Union Infantry will come onto the field and engage with the Confederate Skirmishers.
- 1:35 The Full Confederate Force will engage in the battle with Artillery supporting.
- 1:40 Both sides will fight back and forth across the field displaying various methods of infantry fire. (Volley, Fire by Rank, Fire by File and Fire at will
- 1:45 All out union assault will begin with Confederates falling back.
- 1:50 Confederates will retreat of the field with the Artillery Captured as well as any Confederates that may wish to be captured
- 1:55 Resurrect and March to position in front of spectators. Both sides Fire a Volley salute
- 2:00 Battle Ends